I wish to thank everyone who has sent me info on my Miller family, which is from my father's line.

I started this back in 1969 and all my grand parents were gone but still had many other members of their family I could call on to get info. Otherwise I worked at the court house, library and cemeteries to find info that I could.

I with others spent many a week at the Ft. Wayne, IN library, Salt Lake City library, Madison, WI library and many hours at Columbia, MO library just about every year from when I started. There was 4 of us who went to Iowa City every month during the good weather but now one has moved, one has passed and the other can't get out any longer and no fun to go by your self. So decided it was time to stop.

This was before the internet so didn't have that to rely on but was just as well as have found a lot of wrong info on the internet. (I can't say mine is all right either) As much of it was not able to be proven for sure so just had to go by what we could find. But if anyone has proof of what you find is wrong in any of my books I would appreciate knowing it. We know every one is not 100% right as no one is perfect, even in research.

So hope these books will be appreciated and enjoyed as much as I had putting them together. But I think now is the time to turn them over to someone else to enjoy as I can't get to the libraries any longer and only the internet to rely on and that isn't as much fun as going to the places where your ancestor's walked themselves.

You will notice different address's but the one above is correct.

grave marker But not the cem they said he was in either. (copy)

There was some info in Clark Co. KY that someone was looking for info on 3 brothers from VA and couldn't find much on them however Maxey wasn't one of them. George, James, Joseph & John all from Shenandoah Co. VA. 1810 census of Clark Co. had several Millers. William Miller had 9 in family, George had 7, Joseph had 9, Aaron had 6, Abraham had 15, James had 7 and one William in Winchester had 4. William Tate had 10 in family. So any of them could have had Maxwell "Maxey" in 1808.

BIRTH: Notice of death from LaPlata newspaper listed his age as 75 in 1879. Not sure if born VA or NC but most census list VA. Not sure if Jesse and Lucinda are his parents but he was in same place at same time. Lindell Miller doesn't list him as a child, nor does anyone else to date.

MARRIAGE: Not located date but probably abt 1827-30 according to childrens births.

DEATH: Notice from LaPlata Home Press, LaPlata, MO newspaper, stating "he died at age 75, residence of his son Mr W. Miller southwest of LaPlata 11 Mar 1879. He was an old resident of Macon county, and was highly esteemed for his many excellent traits of character." Not located what cemetery he is buried in.

His will was written 9 Apr 1872 and probated 17 Mar 1879 in Macon Co. MO. Listed wife Susan, children: Patsey Ann May, wife of David May; Zachariah Miller, Fanny May, wife of Jonathan May; Susan Elizabeth Miller, Marinda Magee, wife of Patrick Magee; Louisa Ducey, wife of William Ducey. Wit: Thomas G. Sharp, John P. Sharp & J.N. Brown.

Randolph Co. MO History 1884 pg 966: Bio on William Miller, son of Maxey Miller, native of KY. Maxey Miller removed to MO from KY abt 1830 and settled Howard Co. MO 1845 moved to Macon Co. Independence Twp. (not located 1840 census). (how accurate this info is probably correct.) Maxey and Susannah Tate Miller had a son William Miller.

1810 census Maxey would be 2 years of age and prob. with parents. He maybe son of another Miller in Ky. Frederick Wilson Miller married in 1812 so don't think he is father of Maxey.

1820 census he would be ca 12 and Jesse Miller didn't have any males age 12 listed with him in Wayne Co. KY.

1830 census he would be ca age 22 and haven't located Maxey Miller in census. Said he moved to Howard Co MO abt 1830 but didn't locate him in KY or MO

1840 Macon Co. MO Maxy Miller males to 5-1 10/15-1 30/40-1 and females to 5-1 5/10-2 10/15-1 30/40-1.

1850 Macon Co. MO Dist 52 pg 170A #741/751: Maxey Miller 42 Va farmer, Susannah 41 KY, Thomas J. 19 Mo, Patsy Ann 15 MO, William 14 MO, Fanny 10 Mo, Zachariah 9 Mo, Susan 6 Mo, Malinda 4 Mo.

1860 Macon Co. MO East Independence twp. East Fork p.off. pg 192 #1309/1309: Maxey Miller 53 Va, Susan 52 KY, Patsy A. 24 MO, Susan 17 MO, Miranda 13 Mo, Louisa 10 MO.

1870 Macon Co. MO Independence Twp. pg 18 #128/130: Maxey Miller 64 Va, Susan 62 KY, Susan E. 25 MO.

1880 not checked to date. Maxey would be deceased but Susanna should still be listed.

WILLIAM MILLER

(Of Miller & Pennell, Proprietors of the O. K. La Plata Mills).

Mr. Miller, a native Missourian and of Southern family and sympathies, being a young man of military age when the war broke out, very naturally identified himself with the South, and promptly offered himself as a volunteer to uphold Southern rights and institutions. He was in Texas at the outbreak of the war, and early in 1861 enlisted in Co. A, Eleventh Texas cavalry, under Col. Young. After the battle of Pea Ridge, he went east of his campaign in Kentucky, and was under Gen. Wheeler most of the time after the battle of Stone river until surrendering at Charlotte, N. C., April 26, 1865. These few lines taken from Gen. Wheeler's farewell address to his command are worthy of a place here: "You are the sole victors of more than two hundred sternly contested fields. You have participated in more than a thousand conflicts of arms." In one of them he was severely wounded and was confined to the hospital for about a month. Among the great battles of the war in which he took part were those of Chickamauga, Stone river and Pea Ridge. He returned to Macon county after the war and soon after went into the milling business in Charlton county. In 1869 this mill was moved to Richland township, Macon county. In 1879 he traded mills with A. Weekly, who erected and named their present mill O. K. La Plata mill, and he has since been identified with this mill. They have an excellent grain mill (he and his partner) and are doing a good business. On the 14th of February, 1869, Mr. Miller was married to Miss Mary E. Pennell, a daughter of William D. and Delilah A. Pennell, formerly of Pennsylvania, but old and respected residents of Charlton county, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. M. are members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Mr. Miller's father, Maxey Miller, is a native of Kentucky, as was also the mother, whose maiden name was Susannah Tate. They removed to Missouri in about 1830 and settled in Howard county. In about 1845 the father removed to Macon county and settled in Independence township. The mother died in 1873, and Mr. Miller, Sr., subsequently broke up house-keeping and died in 1879. William Miller, the subject of this sketch, was principally reared in Macon county, but was born in Howard county, October 24, 1836. He received a good common-school education and taught school for a time after growing up. In 1858 he went to Texas, and was there when the war began in 1861, as stated above.

PETER MINGUS

(Farmer).

Mr. M. was born in Union county, Penn., February 26, 1819, and was a son of Peter Mingus, pere, and wife, Barbara Carnes, both born and reared in that State. When Peter, fils, was seven years of age the family moved to Venango county, of the same State, where he grew to manhood. In 1842, then 23 years of age, he went to Adams county, Ohio, where he entered land in the wilderness and improved a farm. Two years later, August 27, 1844, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Bars, a daughter of William Bars of that county, but formerly of Pennsylvania. Eight children are the fruits of this union: Mary J., wife of Martin Hizer; William A., Samuel C., Martha A., wife of William H. Lee; Sarah E., wife of A. B. Lee; George W., Charles and Carrie E., now a young lady. In 1855 Mr. Mingus removed to Iowa, where he was engaged in farming for 15 years. In the spring of 1870 he came to Missouri and bought land where he now resides. He has a farm of 200 acres, comfortably and substantially improved, and besides this he has another tract not far distant, also improved. Mrs. Mingus is a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at La Plata. Mr. Mingus is a hard-working, honest man, a man who has made all he has by the sweat of his own brow and a man of solid intelligence, generous heart and good impulses.

J. LOUIS NORFOLK

(Farmer and Fine Sheep-raiser).

Mr. Norfolk, who up to six years ago knew nothing of farming, so far as practical experience is concerned, having been brought up to and always previously followed other pursuits, but who, nevertheless, has shown himself to be one of the most clear-headed, enterprising and successful farmers in the township, is a native of Pennsylvania, born in Washington county, June 5, 1850. In youth he took a thorough course in the Monongahela public schools, and possessed of a bright, active mind, and given to habits of close and attentive studiousness, he completed his course at the early age of 13, graduating in the common and higher English branches and in mathematics, including geometry, surveying, etc. He then went on the river and was steamboating up to the age of 20. Tiring of the unsettled life of a riverman he quit the water and learned the paper-making trade, which he followed in Elk Horn, in Alleghany county, of his native State, for about seven years. But this was too confining and was gradually making inroads on his health, so, having by industry and economy saved up some means, he decided to try the life of a farmer. But of course he hadn't gotten along all this time without a wife. He was married January 29, 1871. His wife was previously a Miss Barbara Cowan, a daughter of George Cowan, of Washington county, Penn. Therefore, in quitting the paper business in 1878, he brought his family and what means he had out West, locating in Macon county. Here he bought a farm and went to work, not with gloves either, but in dead earnest, as a regular old-fashioned to the mator born granger. In fact, he worked with a good deal more energy than a great many farmers do. Working hard and managing well he has of course become successful. He has a handsome farm of 200 acres, and has it improved with all modern conveniences, including an ice house, a fine

Charles "Monty" Lamond

Birth: Mar. 7, 1842
Pennsylvania, USA
Death: Jun. 2, 1931
Springfield
Sangamon County
Illinois, USA

Aged 89y 2m 25d. (Note the age discrepancy in article below.) Son of John and Nancy Clayton Lamond. He was an engineer for the Chicago & Alton railroad.

Charles "Monty" Lamond, 78, widely known central Illinois parachute jumper, died yesterday morning at St. John's hospital. He was injured three years ago when making a jump at the fairgrounds and had been suffering from a lingering illness since.

Lamond was one of the earliest parachute jumpers in this section of the country. He first thrilled crowds in Springfield and surrounding towns during balloon days, later jumping from airplanes.

Despite his advanced age, Lamond in 1928, when 75 years old, soared high in the sky over the fairgrounds to make a jump before many thousand spectators at the fair. After leaving the ship his chute opened properly and he started the descent. He endeavored to make a somersault in the air, hanging from the parachute straps. He lost consciousness in the attempt and was dragged by the parachute after reaching the ground.

By trade, "Monty", as his thousands of friends knew him, was an engineer for the Chicago & Alton railroad. His parachute jumping was "just a sideline" which he enjoyed as much as the crowds below.

Jumps were made frequently from the time he was a young man until his final leap in 1928. Fairs in many counties sought his attendance.

Hi Gladys,

It sure is a small world. We lived in Geneseo until 1987, then we moved to Metamora, Illinois, then spent 1990 to 1993 in France, and then back to Metamora. I worked in Mt. Joy, Iowa, for Caterpillar, from 1978 until 1987. We now spend the summers in Illinois and the winters in Florida.

I don't have very much info on Mary Lucille Ellison (Lucy) - b. about 1796 in S. Carolina, m. April 12, 1812 in Wayne Co. Ky., d. after 1880 in Randolph Co. Mo.

I have the info in my database:

Frances Marion Munden b. Aug 27, 1837 in Gascanade Co. Mo, d. May 7, 1922 In Kirksville Mo, buried Miller Cemetery Adair Co. Mo.

Elizabeth Miller, b. Sep 10, 1840 in Randolph Co. Mo, d. May 22, 1880 In Green Grove Mo., buried Miller Cemetery Adair Co. Mo.

Frances and Elizabeth were m. Sep 4, 1856 in Kirksville Mo, and had 7 children.

Rebecca Jane, Mary Siegles, George Washington, James Mattison, Margaret E., Frederick L., Martha.

Jesse Francis Lowe, b. Aug 6, 1859 in Greentop Mo, d. May 24, 1928 in Adair Co. Mo.

Rebecca Jane Munden, b. Sep 16, 1858 in Greentop Mo., d. Jan 16, 1894 in Adair Co. Mo.

Jesse and Rebecca were m. May 11, 1879 In Adair Co. Mo. and had 5 children.

Mary Ann, Charles Henry, Jacob O., Matt Francis, Maude Ethel.

Charles Henry Lowe, b. May 8, 1883 in Adair Co. Mo., d. Feb 2, 1957 in Kirksville Mo., buried LaPlata Cemetery
 Laura Alice Thompson, b. Aug 6, 1885 In Gifford Mo., d. Feb 28, 1964 In Kirksville Mo., buried LaPlata Cemetery

Charles and Laura were m. Mar 3, 1903 in Kirksville Mo. I do not have any children listed.

I have been to the Miller Cemetery in Adair Co. Mo., and LaPlata Cemetery - my wife lived in LaPlata.
 I also have copies of Frederick Miller's will, and Jesse Miller's will also.

If you would like to share the Miller info. I could send a print out from Family Tree V10.

Regards,
 Lindell Miller

Ok,

They should not have put the death records for Missouri on line. I have been having fun.

It seems that Maggie Duddrear, daughter of Emma Greathouse, had a son out of wed lock:;) Maggie then marries her 1st cousin, Oscar Thorp, Oscar dies, then their son Oscar Jr., dies. Oscar is the son of Margaret Greathouse, who is sister to Emma. Every thing clear as mud:;) Don't you just love this family. Never a dull moment. Now if I just knew what happened to them after 1930.

Just sharing the latest scandal. Love families that are not squeaking clean.

Carol

PS, Donna!! You are suppose to be visiting you cousin Agnes!!
